Summer is around the corner.

Everyone should stay hydrated. I know your use to the heat and working in it. Just a friendly reminder to check on people and keep yourself healthy. Snacks through the day and hydration.

Economy

Times are getting tough for some.. People are not wanting to spend money right now.. Get out there don't give up leave cards hand out tri-folds, go to real-estate companies there are jobs out there you just got to go get them. Great way to advertise and meet people as well.
